Family Business Center to Offer Expertise on Determining the Value of Family-Owned Businesses

COLUMBUS, Ohio—The Family Business Center of Central Ohio will hold a networking event and an educational program, “Do You Know the Value of Your Family Business?” on Thursday, May 17, in Alumni Hall at Ohio Dominican University.

The networking event will begin at 7:30 a.m. and will provide an opportunity for family business professionals to meet and create business connections with other central Ohio family business associates.

The educational program will follow at 8 a.m. until 10 a.m. Presenters will include Tim McDaniel, CPA, ASA, CBA, CBI, managing director of Rea Strategic Solutions; Chief Executive Officer of Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co., Andrew Coen, MT, CPA; and Brian D. Bornino, CPA/ABV, CFA, CBA, director of valuation services of GBQ Consulting, LLC.

The business valuation expert panelists will explain why family business-owners should know the current value of their business and how they can maximize their business interest's value. The featured speakers will also describe the methods of determining the value of closely-held businesses and what the valuation process entails. Additionally, the presenters will advise attendees on how to select the right valuation professional for their family business.

These events are free to members and $65 for non-members. To register for the program or for more information on becoming a member of the Family Business Center of Central Ohio, call (614) 253-4820 or visit www.familybusinesscenter.com.
