Conway Center Presenting Panel Discussion on Life after Succession

Columbus, Ohio, April 12, 2017 – Succession planning is often a challenging process for family owned businesses. It can be further complicated when the founder/senior generation does not have interests outside the business. This interactive panel discussion will cover the importance of envisioning life after the exit, how to plan for it, and why it's important. Designing this next chapter requires self-awareness and understanding of what they really want within each area of their lives – family, hobbies, philanthropy, etc. We will also discuss how next gen and others in the family business can help facilitate a smooth process to full retirement.

The program will take place 7:30-9 a.m. on April 20 in the Community Room at Ohio Dominican University, 1215 Sunbury Road, Columbus, OH 43219.

Conway Center service provider member Joel Guth of Gryphon Financial Partners will lead the informative panel discussion with a panel of family business leaders in all phases of retirement: Mark Corna, Former President & CEO, Corna Kokosing; Joe Dager, Chairman, Velvet Ice Cream; and Ken Heiberger, CEO, Heiberger Paving.

RSVP to Amy Dotts at ADotts@FamilyBusinessCenter.com or 614-253-4820. The program is free for Conway Center members and $35 for non-members. Family business leaders attending for the first time may attend as a Conway Center guest.

This session is the third in the nine-program Educational Series hosted by the Conway Center for Family Business. For more information about this series or the Conway Center, please visit www.FamilyBusinessCenter.com or call 614-253-4820.
