Conway Center Presents Panel Discussion on Bringing the Next Gen Into the Family Business

Columbus, Ohio, January 9, 2018 – Bringing the next generation of leaders into a family business is an ongoing process that requires time and attention.

The Conway Center for Family Business will host a panel discussion on best practices for bringing next generation family members into the business. Facilitated by Budros, Ruhlin & Roe, family business leaders from Kirk Williams Company and ALNI will share their thoughts and experiences on bringing next gens along. We'll hear what works - and what doesn't - from these two companies that differ in size and generational makeup.

This program is generously sponsored by KeyBank.

The program will take place 7:30-9 a.m. on January 18 in the Community Room at Ohio Dominican University, 1215 Sunbury Road, Columbus, OH 43219.

RSVP to Amy Dotts at ADotts@FamilyBusinessCenter.com or 614-253-4820. The program is free for Conway Center members and $35 for non-members. Family business leaders attending for the first time may attend as a Conway Center guest.

This session is the first in the nine-program Educational Series hosted by the Conway Center for Family Business. For more information about this series or the Conway Center, please visit www.FamilyBusinessCenter.com or call 614-253-4820.
