Conway Center Presents Panel Discussion Entitled “This is Not Your Grandfather’s Company: Diversification and Starting a Branch of the Family Business”

Columbus, Ohio, November 1, 2018 – According to the Family Business Consulting Group, "The primary advantage of family business diversification is that it helps assure ownership's long-term commitment to the business." But, "All this works so long as the family has the right number and mix of businesses of the right size each."

The Conway Center for Family Business is hosting a panel discussion on diversifying the family business. The program takes place 7:30-9 a.m. on November 8 in the Community Room at Ohio Dominican University, 1215 Sunbury Road, Columbus, OH 43219.

Jonathan and Jerry Modlich of Modlich Monument Company will discuss their experiences with spinning off a business from the primary family business unit. Jim Wasserstrom of Advance Sign Group will share why he left his family business to start his own.

This program is facilitated by Kelly Borth of GREENCREST and sponsored by Huntington Bank.

RSVP to Amy Dotts at ADotts@FamilyBusinessCenter.com or 614-253-4820. The program is free for Conway Center members and $35 for non-members. Family business leaders attending for the first time may attend as a Conway Center guest.

This session is the eighth in the nine-program Educational Series hosted by the Conway Center for Family Business. For more information about this series or the Conway Center, please visit www.FamilyBusinessCenter.com or call 614-253-4820.
