Conway Center Presents Panel Discussion Cyber Security

Columbus, Ohio, April 11, 2019 – The Conway Center for Family Business is hosting a panel discussion on cyber security and the risks to family owned businesses.

The program takes place 7:30-9 a.m. on April 18 in the Community Room at Ohio Dominican University, 1215 Sunbury Road, Columbus, OH 43219.

80% of businesses were targets of fraud in '18. This session will be led by experts who will give insight into understanding how to detect what potential fraud risks are and how to put defensive measures in place to protect your business from the bad guys.

Mike Kramer, VP of First Merchants Bank will moderate the conversation with Kurt Hoeft from EasyIT, Doug Davidson from GBQ Partners, and Aimee Gilliland from First Merchants Bank. Nate Fisher, a family business leader, will discuss the way his company got caught in a phishing scam and how it cost them time and resources.

Sponsored by GREENCREST.

RSVP to Amy Dotts at ADotts@FamilyBusinessCenter.com or 614-253-4820. The program is free for Conway Center members and $35 for non-members. Family business leaders attending for the first time may attend as a Conway Center guest.

This session is the fourth in the nine-program Educational Series hosted by the Conway Center for Family Business. For more information about this series or the Conway Center, please visit www.FamilyBusinessCenter.com or call 614-253-4820.
